I want to search for horizons
That, as yet, remain unseen.
I want to mean all that I say,
And say just what I mean.
I want all men to be equal,
And I'll do all that I can
To welcome in my lifetime
The brotherhood of man.

J. Clinton Alvord

"Haven't you noticed the days somehow keep getting longer?"

You've got to get up every morning that you're beautiful as you feel.

I never want to die.

"Smile, it makes people wonder what you've been up to."

If words came as readily as ideas,
and ideas as feelings,
I could say ten hundred kindly things.
You know my supreme happiness is Having one on earth whom I can call a friend.

Geraldine Barry

When the rain came I thought you'd leave
Cause I knew how much you love the sun.
But you chose to stay; stay and keep me warm
Through the darkest nights I've ever known.
If the mandolin wind couldn't change a thing
Then I know I love you

James Barsoum

Life — so they say
Is but a game and they let it slip away
Love — like the Autumn sun
Should be dying but it's only just begun
Like the twilight in the road up ahead
They don't see just where we're goin
And all the secrets in the universe
Whisper in our ears and all the years
Will come and take us up — always up

Ralph Hollis Bartlett

We are, all of us,
Molded and remolded by those
Who have loved us;
No love, no friendship,
Can ever cross the path of our destiny
Without leaving some mark upon it forever.

Gail Marilyn Bath

Dreaming as the summers die.
Ever drifting down the stream —
Lingering in the golden gleam —

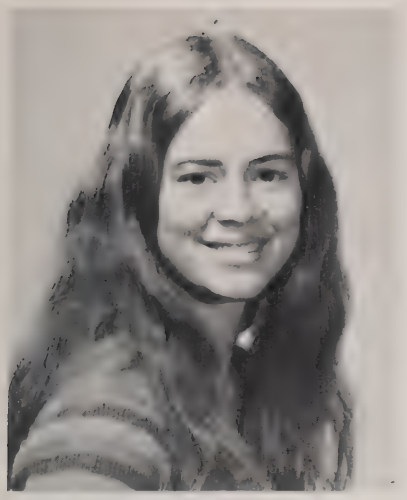
The secret of life is not to do what you like,
but to like what you do.

Patricia Bombard

I caught you knocking on my cellar door
I love you baby can I have some more?
Damage Done
I hit the city and I lost my band
I watched the needle take another man.
Milk blood to keep from running out.
I saw the needle and the Damage Done
A little part of it in everyone
Cause every junkie's like a setting sun.



Elizabeth Bouffard

To accomplish a friendship
Is to be yourself
For someone to appreciate.

Janice M. Boughton

People who have warm friends are healthier and happier than those who have none. A single real friend is a treasure worth more than gold or precious stones. Money can buy many things, good and evil. All the wealth of the world could not buy you a friend or pay you for the loss of one.

Christine Lucy Brazauskas

There are times when I think that I've found the truth
There are times that I know that I'm wrong
And the days when I try to hide my fears
Bless the days when I'm feeling strong
Wonder why we try so hard
Wonder why we try at all
You wonder why the world is turning around
When in the end it won't matter at all.

Patricia A. Brenner

Treasure the hours with those dear to you.
Dare to be loving, and trusting, and true.
Dare to be happy, don't shy away.
Reach out and capture the joy of today.

Marie Brescia

"Good times, bad times, you know I had my share."

Don't let it bring you down
It's only castles burning.
Find someone who's turning
And you will come around.

SueAnn Brodeur

"Dream on"

Dream until your dreams come true.

Karen Brough

There's more than one way to sing a song
What's right for you just can't be wrong
So just do what I do
If I feel it I do it.
And if I do it you know I feel it
And that's real.

It's what you think that makes the world

"All I ask of life is to love and to be loved."

Look to this day,

Much more than this I did it my way.

rain,
Isn't rain filled with sorrow.
Wonder if I'll see my home
again,
Will it be there
tomorrow.
Time passes softly,
I'm a day older, but still I'm living
Days gone by.
Ashes to Ashes, the rain's turning colder,
Finding tomorrow.
The ashes, the rain, and I.

Should look across our shoulders once
And help the weak ones to their feet.
It only takes an out-stretched hand.

Wandering by lone sea breakers
And sitting by desolate streams.

Deborah Topham

. . . And as we wind on down the road,
Our shadows taller than our soul,
There walks a lady we all know . . .
And if you listen very hard,
The tune will come to you at last,
When one is all, and all is one.
To be a rock and not to roll . . .

"If I cannot do great things, I can do small things in a great way."

There's no thrill in easy sailing,

How long we live is not for us to say;
We may have years ahead — or but a day.
The length of life is not of our control.

Not length, but width and depth define the span

It matters not how long before we sleep,
But only how wide is our life — how deep.

Smile — It happens in a flash but the memory of it lasts forever. It cannot be begged, borrowed, or stolen, but it is of no earthly good to anyone until it is given away. So if in your hurry you meet someone who is too weary to smile, leave one of yours, for no one needs a smile quite as much as he who has none to give!

Kimball with a crack.

The Colonial football squad this year exhibited its usual reputation as a powerhouse. Head coach Mario Marchisio and assistant coaches Art Liljegren Tom Nault, and Dick Bates, structured the team with their experienced knowledge but were challenged greatly due to unending injuries. The outcome was a 5-4 record, but the team should be remembered as a team of all around talent with a lot of pride.

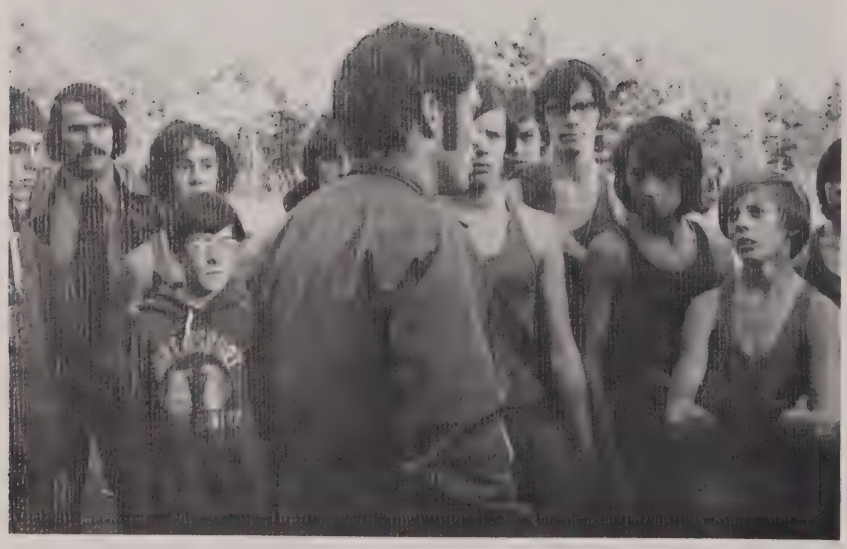
SHREWSBURY'S ROADRUNNERS

Cross country is a sport filled with dedicated athletes that compete purely for the sake of competition. It is not a spectator sport but the team still works hard for the school spirit. The team finished with a 8-2 league record and defeated cross town rivals St. Johns.



Determination is the word.

The Bearded runner.

All-Star goalie and sensation John Doctor.

Though it was only their second year in competition and the first year in the Midland League, SHS Soccer Team surprised everyone by posting an 8-3 record and capturing the division championship. Led by captains Steve Kewley and Kevin MacNamara and anchored by a stingy defense, the Colonials qua-for the state tournament. Highlights of the season were triumphs of 2-0 over perennial powerhouse Hudson High and a 1-0 whitewashing of arch-rivals St. Johns.

HOCKEY

Known as the 'Cinderella Team of the Midland League, we were a threat and a great challenge to other teams that played us. Coming from a 1-8-1 season to a 6-3-2 season, a bubble of joy was created and loving the taste of victory was formed. Until the final league against Milford, there was a chance for the Midland League title with a victory at Milford, but the bubble was quickly broken with a defeat of 2-0. A team with pride and nothing to be ashamed of, had to settle for second place.

The Colonials were under the play of a new head coach this season, that being Mr. Pahigian. He did a superior job leading the team to a 17-3 record, but a coach is as good as his players. This year Shrewsbury had just that, with standout effort from upcoming Juniors and the experienced Seniors.

Girls Basketball

We're #1

It's a good thing, she gets her shots off faster than she gets the net down.

A basketball team is not effective unless the whole team gives 100% and this is what the girl's varsity basketball team did this season. By all of them giving 100%, they won the Midland League title with only 1 league defeat. With a record of 13-2, the team was invited to the Clark Basketball Tournament where they defeated Grafton and Wachusett. Sutton was the only team left to face for the Clark title and the outcome of the night for Shrewsbury was the precious Clark title.

Although they may never play together again, the memories will always be there.

"McFebruary" was a very special month for the girl's basketball team at SHS!!!

When Cookie made the team, they had to raise the ceiling!!

Watching this team perform, was an education in winning basketball games.

Here we are again, the Shrewsbury Rocket Research Society, better known as the Rocket (Racket) Club. This year (1973-1974 in case you forgot) we sponsored a club hockey game, took a field trip to the Boston Science Museum, and stole the Comet Kohoutek.

The club Newsletter was smaller than usual. This was due to the paper shortage and the energy shortage (lazy editor).

For a number of years (the number being 3) artists and writers here at Shrewsbury High have been able to let their talents run amok in a magazine which has become lovingly known, in high society, as "The Journal". Why "The Journal" you say? Why not, we say. Actually, we're going to let you in on a little secret. Come closer . . . closer . . . this is just between us.

HOW THE JOURNAL GOT IT'S NAME

Once upon a time, long, long ago (even before Mr. Yagian began smoking cigars) a young english teacher named Don :(not to be confused with The Don) became increasingly aware of the need for an outlet (not to be confused with a wall socket) for the creative feelings of Shrewsbury students. Up until then one found these talents wasted on the walls in the bathroom or on tables in the Cafeteria.

After much consideration, Don (still not to be confused with The Don) decided to publish a magazine and name it "The Journey", because he hoped it would have a long future ahead of it and also because it was such a long walk to the ditto machine (clever, Don). The faculty liked the idea, but the janitors felt it would be just that much more waste paper. Anyway, it was all set to go when the efficient but inexperienced staff misprinted the title page to read "Journal" instead of "Journey". Don, (now to be confused with The Don) was heartbroken, but he regained his composure and carried on with the show.

Some time has passed since that fatal mistake but the staff still uses the name "Journal" and carries an efficiency rating of zero.

Well, that's the story. Believe it or not.
